II. STATED PURPOSE

Mayor Hutchinson stated the Executive Session was called for the purpose of meeting for the discussion of employment of labor counsel regarding a personnel issue.

A. Discussion on the employment of labor counsel

Mayor Hutchinson turned the discussion over to Mr. Hudzik and Deputy Chief of Police Jerry Paul. After brief remarks by Mr. Hudzik, Mr. Paul presented the Council with background information regarding an applicant for the police force that was not recommended for hire by the City's Police Board.

The applicant has requested a meeting with the Police Board to ascertain why he was denied employment. The attorney representing the Board advises that the applicant should be allowed to meet with the Board and recommends that the City's labor attorney should be present to direct the Board as to what information should be released. Thus, Mr. Paul is requesting that the Council contact its labor attorney Mark W. Weisman and request that he be at the Board's meeting.
